

Next-Door Neighbours (notes)

1. Students are given out either one picture or one word and have to get into groups of three consisting of the animal, where he lives and what he looks like.
2. Students predict the noise that the animals make.
3. Students listen to the song and have to arrange themselves in chronological order as per the song.
4. Students join in with their animal and sing along.